

PRINCESS TO-DAY AND FRIDAY

"The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin."

THE STORY.

By Elliott J. Clawson.

Summer 1914—and the world was at peace—love and friendship ruled the glad business of every day. God looked down from Heaven and was pleased.

Gentle breezes fanned the swaying fields of grain; the world hummed with the pleasing sound of bees and birds and laughing girls.

Marcus, the blacksmith of Louvain, was a mighty man. This man, Marcus, lived in faith and love and friendship, and, by the sweat of his brow, had won peace and prosperity.

There was another man who lived in a palace in Berlin. He was twice a king, eighteen times a duke, twice a prince, nine times a count—besides being a bishop—William of Hohenzollern, King of Prussia, Emperor of Germany.

The blacksmith of Louvain was a better man than the Hohenzollern. The blacksmith owned but two suits of clothes, one for work and one for the Sabbath. The Kaiser owned three hundred and sixty-six.

August 1st, 1914, and William of Hohenzollern spoke the word that set the world afire; came the crash, titanic, colossal—staggering.

Joy died, hope fled, desolation became supreme.

Upon that day the world passed into twilight.

The baneful autocracy of Prussia had spoken. An autocracy of hate which for decades had been deceiving a great people, poisoning their minds, preaching the virtue and necessity of war; had applied the torch of Devastation.

By a trick of circumstances the weal of mankind was placed for a moment in the hand of an arrogant egoist, tyrant, madman—William of Hohenzollern. The greatest crime in all history was perpetrated that ONE man might find for HIMSELF a place in the sun.

Blinded by the Gods, there flashed forth in the mind of this one man, a madness, a fatuity, a mania fatal, malignant, satanic.

From beyond the dim horizon began the tireless thudding of guns. The rich fields, the peaceful farm, the busy city became the barracks, the arsenal and the hospital.

In two years twenty-two million families mourned, but hunger and suffering do not lend themselves to the process of arithmetic—blasted homes and stunted lives are not to be interrupted by mathematics.

Then came the master crime. An unoffending people was ground into extinction beneath an iron heel, a nation was destroyed, the crime against Belgium completed to its fullest; the Prussian stalked onward with his twin comrades, Frightfulness and Horror. A new blotch of infamy—the Lusitania—was added to the Black Name of the Beast.

There was another man who lived in a White House. The Chief and Spokesman of a Great Nation that believes all people were born Free and Equal with a right to Peace and Happiness.

Then came the end. The dark curtain which, like a shroud, had enveloped the earth, cleared away, and when the echo of the last cannon had died upon the air, the silver-throated bells of all the world rang forth the glad tidings—

"William of Hohenzollern Has Fallen!"

He is a member of Co. K. 149th Infantry.

City Attorney William Oglesby Soyars and Joshua Summers Cooper went to Evansville yesterday and both passed their first examination for admission to the Marine Corps. Both have made several unsuccessful attempts to volunteer, Mr. Soyars failing on account of a recent operation for appendicitis and Mr. Cooper from underweight. TIN DEPOSITS FOUND IN BOTH CAROLINAS.

(By International News Service.) Washington, May 15.—North and South Carolina tin deposits may prove a new source of mineral wealth to the United States. A report made public by the United States Geological Survey on the deposits in the Kings Mountain region of those two States shows many sources of tin oxide.

The entire region already has been extensively prospected, and there have been some attempts at mining. In at least one place, at Gaffney, placer mining has been temporarily profitable. In the main, however, mining of the deposits has been conducted at a loss.

The conclusions of the report are that operations so far neither prove nor disprove the value of the deposits.

Eyes tired, lenses ground.

1—Camouflaged gun posted far behind the French lines in Picardy. 2—Teuton-Finnish White Guards marching through the city of Vasa, Finland, against the Red Guards and Russians. 3—Moreon Camille Burners, a French miss sixteen years old, in the first uniform of the military drill corps of the United States shipping board.

PRINCESS SATURDAY.

"The Secret of the Storm Country" will have a lesson for everyone who sees it," declared Norma Talmadge in discussing the picture. "In my opinion it is every motion picture actress' duty to uphold the sanctity of the home, and inasmuch as the fifth estate plays such an important part in moulding present-day public opinion this photoplay will appeal not only to one class but to every rank of society, rich or poor, worldly or homeloving."

"It is because it has this appeal that I think it the greatest picture I have ever done. The story depends for its climax on love's sacrifice. And inasmuch as this is an era of sacrifice it will teach to every woman who sees it a lesson which will make her want to sacrifice herself for a worthy cause, either for home or for country."

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The following telegram was received last night unsolicited: "Bowling Green, Ky., May 15, 1918.

M. L. Stockley, Hopkinsville, Ky. The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin, is positively the best picture ever shown in Bowling Green—a picture every American should see.

POOR OLD MAIDS.

A woman by the name of Eliza A. Latham came to Hopkinsville from Muhlenburg county Tuesday night with a Mr. John Ward. They procured a marriage license and Judge Champlin tied the knot about 8 p. m. Incidentally the bride let it be known that this is her fifth husband. "Great heavens!" gasped Judge Champlin, or some one else in the room, "I know of lots of old maids that either can't, or will not, get one husband." Such is life!

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

ALL UNMARKETED WHEAT IN WASHINGTON IS SUBJECT TO SEIZURE BY OFFICIALS.

(By International News Service.) Spokane, Wash., May 15.—All wheat held on farms in this state is subject to requisition to-day by order of Charles Hebbard, State Food Commissioner.

In the latter part of March a call was issued to farmers by the National Food Administration through Hebbard that all wheat in farmers' hands must be on the market by to-day. Seed wheat was excepted in the order.

Most of the surplus wheat now has gone to market and it is not expected any large quantities will be found to be taken over by the Government.

In some localities, it was alleged by the Food Commissioners that farmers had been influenced by pro-German propaganda to hold their grain, and in some instances farmers thought they would get better prices later.

SEED CORN.

A few bushels yellow hard flint yellow corn for sale. This corn has made a successful test in every case this season. In Spencer county the County Agent sent in a test report of 98 per cent. I have planted this corn as late as June 21st and with an average season it would mature sufficiently to keep in the crib through the winter. Will recommend it to any that have late corn to plant. Prices $5.00 delivered to Hopkinsville. Phone 600-4. 584a R. H. MCGAUGHEY.

BURIAL HERE TO-DAY.

Frances M. Baker, the little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Baker, of Cairo, Ill., died in that city yesterday afternoon of meningitis following a mostoid abscess. The body will be brought here for interment and will be taken from the I. C. depot at three o'clock this afternoon to Riverside cemetery and buried in the family lot.

TUESDAY'S LIST.

One Kentuckian, Sergeant South McIntosh, of Jackson, is named in Tuesday's list of American casualties in France, which number seventy-two. Of the number fourteen were killed in action, ten died of other causes and the remainder were wounded.

(By International News Service.) Kansas City, Mo., May 15.—Four thousand social workers from all parts of the United States are gathered here to-day for the forty-fifth annual meeting of the National Conference on Social Work. W. T. Cross, general secretary of the conference, has been here for some time completing arrangements for a series of trips of inspection of the various institutions of Kansas City and vicinity.

Minor, member New York State Probation Commission, and chairman of the committee on protection of girls of the War Department; Henry L. De Loas, associate director of the public service reserve; E. Among the subjects to be discussed are: Housing conditions, prison labor in salvage work, training camp activities and district work in connection with the cities and towns contiguous to the camps, the protection of men and women workers in connection with the war industry.

A series of inspection trips of the local welfare centers will be a part of the programme. A series of special conferences on social matters will be held in addition to the regular meetings.

Special attention will be paid to the war work of the nation at home and abroad. The need of a social life for the soldiers, both encamped in this country and in France, will be discussed from all angles.

The conference will continue for one week, with meetings in the morning, afternoon and at night. The night meetings will be held in Convention Hall.

OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP OPENS AT CAMBRIDGE.

(By International News Service.) Cambridge, Mass., May 15.—Several hundred young men joined the fourth officers' training camp which opened here to-day. The young men who joined this school had to pass a careful physical examination and pass certain mental tests. Applications are now being received at the college for the under-age camp, which opens in June.

80,203 IN TWO WEEKS.

The total of British casualties reported in the week ending May 14 is 41,612.

They are divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds: officers 501; men 5,065. Wounded or missing; officers 2,123; men 33,923.

Reports of British casualties usually are not available for some time after the actions in which they occur are reported. Last week evidently represents losses suffered when the fighting in Flanders and Picardy was at its height.

Complete records have not been given out but it is probable that the casualties reported in the last week are the heaviest British losses of any week of the war. The total last week was 38,691.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET AT ENID TO-DAY.

(By International News Service.) Enid, Okla., May 15.—The annual encampment of the Spanish War Veterans' Association began here to-day, with Commander L. F. J. Rooney presiding. The encampment is planning to form the Spanish veterans of the State into an organization, somewhat similar to the Home Guards, and every veteran of the Spanish War who is not in active service is to be lined up. The meeting closes to-morrow night.

CRUEL HOAX ON GIRLS.

London, May 15.—A tale of a cruel hoax on young girls in a German village is related by the Kieler Zeitung. Inringshausen maidens, promised a Sunday afternoon dance in the town hall, dressed themselves in their best, bringing out from hiding places cherished bits of finery. They trooped to the hall and for two hours waited in vain for partners and music. Then the burgomaster arrived closed the doors and ordered each girl to sign her name to an official paper. That done he curtly informed them that the dance would not take place. The next day policemen visited the girls' homes and confiscated their ribbons and laces.
